Dear Mr. Kaye:

Our campaign staff has informed me of the following information, which I am conveying to you. In response to your letters dated 06/01/2011, the Committee to Elect Alan Grayson has amended the above referenced reports to properly reflect earmark contributions. The issue was resolved through the Campaign s FEC compliance filing software that was not pulling the proper earmark transactions under the corresponding receipts.

Through the 2010 election cycle, this Committee received numerous credit card contributions. The majority of these contributions did not aggregate to the $200.00 threshold requiring the Committee to report them on the above referenced reports. The un-itemized totals that you referenced in your correspondence to this committee are correct.

Regarding 48 hour notice reporting, all contributions were reported when the campaign was in receipt of them per FEC regulations. Mr. Thomas Bennigson contributed 1,000.00 on 10/18/2010 by credit card. The transaction posted to the credit card processing system on 10/19/2010 and was uploaded to the campaigns FEC compliance software program with a date of 10/19/2010 and filed under that date. Because the campaign had knowledge of this contribution that qualified for the 48 hour reporting, it was reported accordingly.

The Committee filed 2 - 48 hour notices for The League of Conservative voters. The amounts were transferred to the committee as earmark contributions and reported accordingly. Because several of the earmark contributions did not exceed the $200 aggregated threshold for reporting, the amounts did not appear on the report but are included in the unutilized amounts.

Two receipts were reported as a result of the requirements of the 48 hour reporting guidelines. The first you referenced was from Mr. Craig Crotty for $1,000.00 on 10/15/2010. Shortly after the 48 hour report was filed, the committee refunded the funds back to Mr. Crotty on the same date. This resulted in the contribution not pulling on the report. The second referenced was the Democratic Congressional Committee DCCC for $2500.00 on 10/22/2010 this was an
